Rosé Wines

44 Merlot-Cabernet Sauvignon Rosé, Cornellana, Chile Aromas of wild strawberry and hints of red cherries abound in this beautiful rosé wine from Chile - delicious!	2010	£16.00
45 Pinot Grigio, Rosato, Ponte Pietra, Italy By leaving the naturally red Pinot Grigio grape skins in contact with the juice, you get a beautiful "coppery" colour. Deliciously fresh, deliciously drinkable!	2010 175ml Glass 250ml Glass ½ Ltr Carafe	£19.00 £4.70 £6.50 £12.80

White Wines

Crisp, dry and zippy whites

1 Sauvignon Blanc, Kintu, Maule Valley, Chile Crisp and fresh with lots of fruit.	2010 175ml Glass 250ml Glass ½ Ltr Carafe	£15.00 £3.75 £5.15 £10.50
2 Chardonnay, Vin de Pays d'Oc, Old Vines, Le Sanglier de la Montagne, France From the hilly vineyards in the heart of the Languedoc, a crisp, refreshing Chardonnay with hints of tropical fruits.	2009	£16.75
3 Pinot Grigio, Bella Modella, Italy The wine that everybody wants doesn't really need a description! Dry, crisp and very refreshing.	2009 175ml Glass 250ml Glass ½ Ltr Carafe	£17.75 £4.45 £6.10 £12.00
4 Vinho Verde, Quinta da Raza, Portugal With its abundance of fresh fruit and with a little spritz this makes for great summer drinking – It cries out for our fish platter!	2010	£21.00
5 Sauvignon Blanc, Mirror Lake, Marlborough, New Zealand Marlborough Sauvignon has taken the world by storm! This is just how it should be, lots of gooseberries and very refreshing.	2010	£21.50
6 Muscadet Sèvre-et-Maine, Sur Lie Château L'Oiselinière, Chéreau-Carre, France Often overlooked, as a refreshing glass of wine, "Sur Lie" Muscadet always hits the spot.	2009	£22.50
7 Albariño, Martin Códax, Rias Baixas, Spain Spain's most exciting white wine grape, crisp, fresh and delicious.	2009	£27.25

Dry to medium, aromatic and floral whites

8 Viognier, Trivento, Mendoza, Argentina Tropical fruits and apricots abound in this deliciously clean and fruity wine from Argentina's Mendoza Valley.	2010	£15.75
9 Chenin Blanc, Klippenkop, South Africa Aromatic flavours on the nose, with a good dollop of fruit and a delightful, zesty finish.	2010	£15.75
10 Garganega, Torre del Falasco, Italy Global Kiwi winemaker, Matt Thompson, knows how to get the best out of grapes. Working closely with one of Italy's best co-operatives Matt has produced a complex and creamy wine, with refreshing citrus notes.	2009	£19.50
11 Riesling, Estate, Dr Loosen, Germany Recognised as one of the saviours of the German wine industry, Dr Loosen has been making top quality wines in the Mosel for many years. Ideal for those wanting a more medium style of wine or one that's lower in alcohol.	2009	£22.00
12 Grüner Veltliner, Fred Loimer, Austria Grüner Veltliner is Austria's signature grape. With good depth, a certain minerality and a twist of white pepper, it makes for a great food matching wine.	2009	£25.50
13 Gewürztraminer, Yealands, Marlborough, New Zealand The often overlooked Gewürztraminer with aromas of rose petals and Turkish delight works wonderfully well with foods that have a light spice.	2009	£27.00

Classic and more complex whites

14 Chablis, Domaine Séguinot-Bordet Burgundy, France The famed expression of Chardonnay; crisp, clean and racy.	2008	£29.50
15 Sancerre, Domaine Pierre et Alain Dezat, Loire, France A classic that really doesn't need an introduction!	2009	£32.50
16 Pouilly Fuissé, Vieilles Vignes, Vincent Girardin, France Vincent Girardin is a rising star in Burgundy – his simple ethos of organic principles and low yields certainly pays dividends. With partial oak ageing, this delicious "old vine" Chardonnay shows why Vincent has such a high reputation.	2008	£36.00
17 Chardonnay, M3 Vineyard, Shaw and Smith, Australia Old fashioned wine making in the new world. Cousins Shaw and Smith have been fashioning artisan wines in the cool climate Adelaide hills for over 20 years.	2008	£38.00

Red Wines

Lighter, easy drinking

18 Merlot, Cornellana, Chile Soft, plummy and jammy fruits abound in this easy going wine.	2010 175ml Glass 250ml Glass ½ Ltr Carafe	£16.00 £4.00 £5.50 £10.80
19 Pinot Noir, Reserve, Nostros, Chile From the cool climate of Chile's Casablanca Valley, this silky, soft wine shows just why this Burgundian grape is so famous.	2010	£17.50
20 Corvina, Torre del Falasco, Italy Vibrant fresh fruit, fantastic served chilled in summer if you so desire?	2009	£19.50
21 Pinot Noir, Central Otago, Mudhouse, New Zealand The famous grape of Burgundy does wonderfully well in New Zealand's temperate climate. Full, fruity and flavoursome red.	2009	£29.50
22 Fleurie, Cave de Fleurie, France Silky, soft and racy - just how the most popular "Cru" of Beaujolais should be!	2008	£29.00

Rounded and medium bodied reds

23 Cabernet Sauvignon, Kintu, Chile Chile's climate is ideally suited to produce rich, fruit-driven wines such as this.	2010 175ml Glass 250ml Glass ½ Ltr Carafe	£15.00 £3.75 £5.15 £10.50
24 Shiraz, Dry River, Australia Easy going, displaying an abundance of dark berry fruits with a dusting of spice.	2010	£15.00
25 Malbec, Vieilles Vignes, Mont Rocher, France As an old vine wine, yields are reduced leading to a more concentrated wine. This is a great new addition to the list, lots of brambly, red fruits with soft spice and good length.	2010	£18.00
26 Chianti, DCG, Borgo Cipressi, Italy A good Chianti with lots of red fruit flavours and a slightly earthy character.	2009	£19.50
27 Côtes du Rhône, Enclaves des Papes, France Rich berry fruits and a hint of spice abound in this easy going wine.	2009	£20.00
28 Rioja, Crianza, Finca Manzanos, Spain Everybody's favourite. Gentle wood-ageing has added an extra dimension to the wonderful red berry fruits. Delicious!	2007	£21.50
29 Château Beaumont, Cru Bourgeois Haut-Medoc, France It's always good to offer something with a bit of age. Château Beaumont, one of the largest estates in the Haut-Médoc, always delivers.	2002	£29.50
30 Bourgogne Pinot Fin, Domaine Robert Arnoux, France Using 60 year old vines of the finest Pinot Noir clone, Pinot Fin, a wonderfully soft, yet structured wine is produced. The domaine farms both organically and bio-dynamically, whilst also not filtering their wines - winemaking how it should be!	2007	£42.00

Full bodied, rich, spicy and hearty reds

31 Pinotage, Klippenkop, Stellenbosch, South Africa South Africa's own grape is earthy, flavoursome and thoroughly unique!	2009	£18.50
32 Ciconia, Herdade de São Miguel, Alentejano, Portugal The Alentejano region of Portugal is making a serious name for itself as a wine producing region. We have championed this wine from the start for its lush red berry fruits with complex aromas and subtle spice - "sunshine in a glass". Wine Spectator - voted in top 100 best value wines of the year.	2009	£19.00
33 Palazzo della Torre, Allegrini, Italy Using a proportion of sun dried grapes in the blend, this wine is often referred to as a "baby Amarone". Softer and more approachable than Amarone and very drinkable.	2006	£31.00
34 Gigondas, Domaine des Bosquets, Rhône, France Instead of choosing the more obvious, a Châteauneuf-du-Pape, we chose this wine to represent everything Southern Rhône. Bold, rich, red berry fruits, delicious oak with warm, gentle spice.	2007	£35.00
35 Zinfandel, Frog's Leap, USA With an emphasis on organic and bio-dynamic farming since 1988, Frog's Leap has always made wine with nature in mind. This Zinfandel is softer, more elegant and structured than some of the monster Napa style Zins.	2006	£42.50

Dessert Wine

47 Riesling Beerenauslese, Dr. Loosen, Mosel, Germany For those of you who want to treat themselves to a dessert wine, we are proud to offer this glorious wine from one of Germany's leading producers. A great idea to share between parties of two and four.	2006 187ml Bottle	£18.00
